Superbrands Romania: 10 years of promoting branding excellence

Branding and communication experts of high international level attended the Gala dedicated to Romania's major brands

Steven van Groningen was honoured with Superbrands Honorary Recognition

Bucharest, January 28, 2016. Superbrands Romania celebrates a decade of evaluating and promoting branding culture, a milestone celebrated in the Superbrands Gala honouring major brands in Romania. The anniversary event hosted the awards ceremony for brands designated as Superbrands as a result of scoring and market survey conducted throughout 2015, and the launch of the seventh Superbrands Romania book. Thanks to the strong brands entering the programme, the Superbrands Book is a reference tool on Romania's potential, as well as for a public interested in a market and a lifestyle dominated by criteria such as quality, distinction and reputation.

The values of a Superbrand: creativity, consistency, honesty and promises kept Ariel, Bonduelle, Borsec, Carlsberg, Castrol, Catena, DHL, FAN Courier, Gerovital, Lidl, Lufthansa, MedLife, Mobexpert, NIVEA, OMV, Orange, Pampers, Radio ZU, Raiffeisen Bank, Scotch Brite, Sensiblu, Telekom, Tuborg, UniCredit Bank, Urgent Cargus are the 25 brands in various industries and fields that received Superbrands awards in the 2015/2016 edition of the programme.

By means of a branding culture developed creatively and strategically in a keenly competitive market, as well as through a strategic placement of the customer-consumer at centre stage, the current edition's Superbrands-designated brands have once again brought Romanian creativity onto the highest podium.

Performance honoured outstandingly:

The special guests of the Superbrands Gala, Norbert Lux, Managing Director of Superbrands Germany, and Maxim Behar, President of ICCO (International Communications Consultancy Organisation) handed out Superbrands awards at the event along with representatives of the Superbrands Council.

Honorary recognition

Superbrands Honorary Recognition, at this edition named Most Admired Business Personality in Romania, was awarded to Mr. Steven van Groningen – President and CEO of Raiffeisen Bank. Mr. Van Groningen was so given public recognition for his meritorious contribution to the process of changing Romania, by means of projects and outstanding achievements in his profession, as well as for his involvement in social causes. The laudatio for this special moment was given by Mr. Sorin Mindrutescu, CEO of Oracle Romania.

Special awards occasioned by the Superbrands 10-year anniversary were granted to DHL – for its performance of being present in all editions of the Superbrands Romania Book, to Procter & Gamble - for succeeding in keeping the highest position for Pampers and Ariel during several consecutive programmes, as well as for the largest number of brands in Top 15 throughout Superbrands Romania editions, and to Telekom – for success in imposing its branding culture to the public in record time after entering the Romanian market.

The Guest Brands section honoured this year names such as ArtMark, Business Review and Uber, all representing outstanding brands in their respective fields in Romania, in terms of professionalism and creativity. The Superbrands award given to art auction house ArtMark was handed over by the Superbrands representatives to Mr. Horia Roman Patapievici.

The Superbrands Gala was attended by about 170 people from the companies awarded, as well as from the business, cultural and diplomatic environments, journalists and other special guests, and was moderated by Mr. Colin Lovering, Chairman of the British Romanian Chamber of Commerce, as Master of Ceremonies of an evening devoted to the creativity and performance of brands in Romania.

Artist Irina Sarbu and Band, coordinated by mentor Florian Lungu, entertained the gala evening in a warm atmosphere.

The event was organised by BDR Associates, the strategic communications agency that has managed the Superbrands programmes for Romania ever since 2005.
